

ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN FRANCISCO
GRADUATION OUTCOMES
For CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOLS

Guided by the Mission of the Department of Catholic Schools for the Archdiocese of San Francisco, which is focused on providing quality leadership, offering programs of educational excellence, and preparing students for a truly Christian life, Catholic High Schools are an integral expression of the teaching mission of the Church, and are therefore committed to developing persons who are the beneficiaries of the rich heritage and legacy of the Church. In all of our educational endeavors, we believe our High School Graduates have been given the skills and tools to adapt to a multicultural society and be productive members of the world community by exercising power and influence for the good of others as Christ-centered leaders of the 21st Century.

Our Graduates are persons of Faith and Spirituality who

- Live the Gospel values
- Respect and appreciate the diversity of religious expression
- Commit to integrating spirituality with their life work

Our Graduates are persons of Intellectual Strength and Courage who

- Communicate effectively in speaking and writing
- Demonstrate critical and creative thinking in problem solving
- Understand and appreciate the value of life-long learning

Our Graduates form Christian Community and

- Understand the world's diverse inter connectedness
- Collaborate with others to work for the common good
- Respect and demonstrate care for the environment as stewards of God's creation

Our Graduates express Confident Leadership to

- Empower others for positive transformation of society
- Lead by the authority of example to embrace change and confront challenge
- Take risks and learn from successes and failures

Our Graduates promote in word and action Social Justice and Integrity to

- Address injustices and work toward change
- Demonstrate a reverence for life and a respect for all traditions, cultures, and peoples
- Confront the moral ambiguities promoted by contemporary culture